

Thursday, September 24, 2015

CAMBRIDGE CHRONICLE & TAB

CANTABRIGIA

HOW TO SUBMIT

ONLINE share.wickedlocal.com/cambridge
EMAIL cambridge@wickedlocal.com FAX 617-62
MAIL Cambridge Chronicle & Tab, 80 Central St.
Somerville, MA 02143

QUESTIONS? Contact Editor Amy Saltzman at cambridge@wickedlocal.com or 617-629-3382.

FOND FAREWELL TO SUMMER

The 12th annual Revels RiverSing ushered in fall Sunday, Sept. 20, with a parade and music set before a beautiful backdrop of the Charles River.

The event featured the New Orleans band, Eli and the Hot Six, the 100member RiverSing Chorus, guest soloists David Coffin, Jamie Jaffe and Stan Strickland, the Revels Alumni Youth Chorus, Ken Field of the Revolutionary Snake Ensemble, percussion ensemble Bloco AfroBrazil and a folk band.

There was also acrobats and street performers, Sara Peattie's larger-than-life puppets, and the giant illuminated butterflies of Gabriel Q. George Emlen.

Members of Actors' Shakespeare Company presented poetry readings.

For information, revels.org.

A street performer parades down JFK St. in Cambridge to the Charles River for the 12th annual Revels RiverSing on Sunday, Sept. 20, 2015.

Performers parade down Memorial Dr. in Cambridge to the Charles River for the 12th annual Revels RiverSing on Sunday, Sept. 20, 2015.

Attendees sing along to songs by the Charles River during the 12th annual Revels RiverSing on Sunday, Sept. 20, 2015.